4. In Beijing, the DCM will be chairing a political/economic briefing for the delegation on Monday, August 29 at 8:00-9:00 a.m. in the first floor conference room of San Ban. The Ambassador will join the group for the last part of that briefing. The Ambassador has offered to host cocktails for the staffdel at his residence on Tuesday, August 29 at 5:00 p.m. Mr. Quick has expressed interest on behalf of the staffdel in attending PCS's evening cocktail hour for American businessmen on Tuesday evening from 5:30-6:30 p.m.

5. The rest of the Beijing schedule is still very tentative. According to Mr. Quick, the group arrives in Beijing late Saturday evening, August 27. CPIFA will meet and greet them at the airport, and is arranging pre-check-in at the Beijing-Toronto Hotel. Mr. Ratliff will meet with CPIFA early Sunday morning, August 28, to finalize the schedule. Sunday afternoon the staffdel will go sightseeing and shopping in the Beijing area. Monday, August 28, will begin with the briefing at the Embassy. Following that, the staffdel will visit the Great Wall and Ming Tombs. On Tuesday, August 29, at 7:30 a.m., the staffdel will have breakfast with MFA Vice Minister Zhu Qizhen. Afterwards, they will meet with Lin Zepu at MOFERT. The staffdel has asked for meetings with the head of CITIC, the Bureau of Drug Administration, the President of the State Energy Corporation, and other mostly working-level officials. They expressly told CPIFA that they do not want to meet with leaders at the national level because of the press coverage that would attract.

6. Press: The staffdel would like as little press exposure as possible. They have asked us to prepare a press statement to be used on an if asked basis confirming that there is a staffdel in town from August 27 to September 8. They have asked that Mr. Ratliff be allowed to clear that statement after arrival before it is used.

7. ACTION REQUESTS:

P&C: Please prepare draft press release along lines cited in para 6 above, and clear with Control Officer and others, as appropriate.

PER: Please prepare for pick-up on Friday, August 25 at 4:00 p.m. eleven welcome kits to be placed in the staffdel's hotel rooms on arrival.
